

Ms Alison (O'Flynn) Rowe

Current Roles

- Global Executive Director of Sustainability,
- Global Green IT Consulting Leader, Fujitsu
- Global Sustainability Community Leader, Fujitsu

Alison describes herself as a passionate optimist. She believes that corporations, mankind and technology have the ability to find solutions to help combat climate change impacts. Alison is responsible for the sustainability strategic direction and actions for Fujitsu; along with ensuring the needs of Fujitsu's clients are met through solutions and services.

Alison established the sustainability consulting practice for Fujitsu, which works with leaders to understand the risks and opportunities in response to climate change.

Alison has twenty years experience in a range of industries including technology, transport, telecommunications, and government. Alison's experience spans strategy to implementation in sustainability, corporate social responsibility, marketing, research & development, IT and supply chain.

Alison has an MBA (Melbourne Business School), Graduate Diploma in Technology Management (University College Dublin) and recently completed the University of Cambridge, Business and Environment Program. She is a member of the Australian Institute of Company Directors and a Williamson fellow.